Romance, the Oregon Coast way

Wild beaches, cozy fireplaces, and nowhere you have to be — the perfect honeymoon backdrop.

A coast honeymoon trades crowded resorts for something more intimate: a suite over the surf, a fire crackling as the fog rolls in, fresh seafood by candlelight, and long walks with no agenda. This guide lays out the most romantic ways to do it — and how to make it effortless.

HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

Pick the vibe that fits you two, choose a town, and add the little touches. Want it all arranged? That's my favorite thing to plan — free.

04 Ready to dream — and a cruise idea

SECTION 01

Five dreamy styles

Pick the honeymoon that sounds like you.

COZY

Fireplace & fog

An oceanfront suite, a bottle of Oregon wine, and storm-watching from under a blanket. Bliss in any season.

PAMPERED

Spa & sunset

Couples' massages, a resort soak, and a long candlelit seafood dinner. Do nothing, beautifully.

ADVENTUROUS

Hike & explore

Cliff-top trails, hidden coves, tide pools, and a jet-boat river ride — romance with a pulse.

FOODIE

Taste the coast

Fresh crab, oysters, wine, and marionberry everything — a delicious, unhurried few days.

THE FIFTH STYLE: MIX IT

The best honeymoons blend a little of each — an adventurous morning, a spa afternoon, a candlelit night. I can weave them together for your dates.

Most romantic towns & stays

Where to settle in for the dreamiest few nights.

UPSCALE & ICONIC

Cannon Beach

Boutique oceanfront inns steps from Haystack Rock, great dining, and gallery strolls. Romance central.

LUXE & DRAMATIC

Bandon

World-class resort stays, sea-stack sunsets, and quiet beaches. Splurge-worthy and unforgettable.

CLASSIC SEASIDE

Depoe Bay

Whale-watching from your window, cozy oceanfront rooms, and a small-town, big-view feel.

HISTORIC CHARM

Astoria

Victorian inns, a lively food-and-drink scene, and river views — romantic and a little different.

BOOK “OCEANFRONT,” NOT “OCEAN VIEW”

For a honeymoon, splurge on a true oceanfront room with a fireplace and a soaking tub. It’s the difference between a nice stay and a magical one — I’ll make sure you get the real thing.

The little touches

Small things that turn a lovely trip into the trip.

- Pack for cozy — a big soft blanket to share on the beach at sunset.
- Bring the bubbly — a travel wine set and two glasses for the suite; many stays provide the fireplace, you provide the toast.
- Golden-hour walk — plan one barefoot beach stroll timed to sunset; it's free and unforgettable.
- One splurge dinner — reserve a table with an ocean view for a fresh-catch, candlelit night.
- Unplug — agree on a phones-down window; the fog and the surf are the whole point.
- A little keepsake — a piece of local art or a beach photo to remember it by.
